PROXY STATEMENT

General

The enclosed Proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of RF Industries, Ltd., a Nevada corporation (the "Company"), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("Annual Meeting") to be held on Friday, June 6, 2008, at 1:30 p.m., local time, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof. The Annual Meeting will be held at the corporate office at 7610 Miramar Road, Suite 6000, San Diego, California 92126-4202. The Company mailed this Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy and Annual Report to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting on or about May 5, 2008.

Voting

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 30, 2008, will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. On April 18, 2008, there were 3,293,499 shares of Common Stock outstanding. The Company is incorporated in Nevada, and is not required by Nevada corporation law or its Articles of Incorporation to permit cumulative voting in the election of directors.

With regard to the election of directors, the six nominees receiving the greatest number of votes cast will be elected provided a quorum is present. On each other matter properly presented and submitted to a vote at the Annual Meeting, each share will have one vote and an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote will be necessary to approve the matter. Shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions or broker non-votes (that is, shares held by a broker or nominee which are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which such broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a particular proposal) will be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Abstentions will be counted towards the tabulation of votes cast on matters properly presented to the stockholders (except the election of directors) and will have the same effect as negative votes. Broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of the matters presented at the Annual Meeting. If the enclosed proxy is properly executed and returned to, and received by, the Company prior to voting at the Annual Meeting, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions marked thereon. In the absence of instructions, the shares will be voted "FOR" (i) the nominees of the Board of Directors in the election of the six directors whose terms of office will extend until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, (ii) amendment to the Company's 2000 Stock Option Plan to increase the number of shares of Common Stock reserved for issuance thereunder by 500,000 shares, and (iii) the approval of the re-appointment of J.H. Cohn LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the 2008 fiscal year.

Revocability of Proxies

When the enclosed Proxy is properly executed and returned, the shares it represents will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with any directions noted thereon, and if no directions are indicated, the shares it represents will be voted in favor of the proposals set forth in the notice attached hereto. Any person giving a Proxy in the form accompanying this Proxy Statement has the power to revoke it any time before its exercise. It may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of the Company's principal executive office, 7610 Miramar Road, San Diego, California 92126-4202, an instrument of revocation or a duly executed Proxy bearing a later date, or it may be revoked by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Please note, however, that if your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, you must obtain from the record holder a proxy issued in your name.

Solicitation

The Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of Proxies, including the preparation, assembly, printing, and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the Proxy, and any additional material furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation material will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries, and custodians holding shares in their names that are beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. In addition, the Company may reimburse such persons for their cost of forwarding the solicitation material to such beneficial owners. The solicitation of Proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram, and/or personal solicitation by directors, officers, or employees of the Company. No additional compensation will be paid for any such services. Except as described above, the Company does not intend to solicit Proxies other than by mail.

PROPOSAL 1: NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board of Director Meetings

All members of the Board of Directors hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders or the election and qualification of their successors. Executive officers serve at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

During the fiscal year ended October 31, 2007, the Board of Directors held six meetings at which each director attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and at least 75% of the meetings of the committees on which he served.

Director Attendance at Annual Meetings

Although the Company does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by Board members at the annual meeting of stockholders, directors are strongly encouraged to attend annual meetings of the Company's stockholders. All of the directors attended the 2007 annual meeting of the Company's stockholders, and all directors are expected to attend the 2008 Annual Meeting.

Board Committees

During fiscal 2007, the Board of Directors maintained two committees, the Compensation Committee and the Audit Committee. Each of these committees is described as follows:

The Audit Committee meets periodically with the Company's management and independent registered public accounting firm to, among other things, review the results of the annual audit and quarterly reviews and discuss the financial statements. The audit committee also hires the independent registered public accounting firm, and receives and considers the accountant's comments as to controls, adequacy of staff and management performance and procedures. The Audit Committee is also authorized to review related party transactions for potential conflicts of interest. As of the end of fiscal 2007, the Audit Committee was composed of Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Ehret and Mr. Kester. Each of these individuals were non-employee directors and independent as defined under the Nasdaq Stock Market's listing standards. Each of the members of the Audit Committee has significant knowledge of financial matters, and Mr. Reynolds currently serves as the "audit committee financial expert" of the Audit Committee. The Company believes that the current members of the Audit Committee can competently perform the functions required of them as members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met four times during fiscal 2007. The Audit Committee operates under a formal charter that governs its duties and conduct.

The Compensation Committee currently consists of Messrs. Ehret, Fink, and Kester, each of whom is non-employee director and is independent as defined under the Nasdaq Stock Market's listing standards. The Compensation Committee is responsible for considering and authorizing remuneration arrangements for senior management. The Compensation Committee held one formal meeting during fiscal 2007, which was attended by all committee members.

Nominating Directors

To date, all six of the Company's directors (five of whom are independent directors) have participated in identifying qualified director nominees. As a result, the Board of Directors has not found it necessary to have a separate Nominating Committee. However, the Board of Directors may form a Nominating Committee for the purpose of nominating future director candidates. If such a committee is formed, each member of the Nominating Committee will be "independent" as defined in the Nasdaq Stock

Market's listing standards. The functions of the Nominating Committee will be to assist the Board of Directors by identifying individuals qualified to become members, and to recommend to the Board of Directors the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders, and to recommend to the Board of Directors corporate governance guidelines and changes thereto.

The Board of Directors has not established any specific minimum qualifications for director candidates or any specific qualities or skills that a candidate must possess in order to be considered qualified to be nominated as a director. Qualifications for consideration as a director nominee may vary according to the particular areas of expertise being sought as a complement to the existing board composition. In making its nominations, the Board of Directors generally will consider, among other things, an individual's business experience, industry experience, financial background, breadth of knowledge about issues affecting our company, time available for meetings and consultation regarding company matters and other particular skills and experience possessed by the individual.

Stockholder Recommendations of Director Candidates The Board of Directors will consider Board nominees recommended by stockholders. In order for a stockholder to nominate a candidate for director, timely notice of the nomination must be given in writing to the Corporate Secretary of the Company. To be timely, the notice must be received at the principal executive offices of the Company as set forth under "Stockholder Proposals" below. Notice of a nomination must include your name, address and number of shares you own; the name, age, business address, residence address and principal occupation of the nominee; and the number of shares beneficially owned by the nominee. It must also include the information that would be required to be disclosed in the solicitation of proxies for election of directors under the federal securities laws, as well as whether the individual can understand basic financial statements and the candidate's other board memberships (if any). You must submit the nominee's consent to be elected and to serve. The Board of Directors may require any nominee to furnish any other information that may be needed to determine the eligibility and qualifications of the nominee.

Any recommendations in proper form received from stockholders will be evaluated in the same manner that potential nominees recommended by our Board members or management are evaluated.

Stockholder Communication with Board Members Stockholders who wish to communicate with our Board members may contact us at our principal executive office at 7610 Miramar Road, Suite 6000, San Diego, California 92126-4202. Written communications specifically marked as a communication for our Board of Directors, or a particular director, except those that are clearly marketing or soliciting materials, will be forwarded unopened to the Chairman of our Board, or to the particular director to whom they are addressed, or presented to the full Board or the particular director at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting.

The Company compensates its directors with an annual grant of options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock. The exercise price of the options is set at the closing price of the common stock on the last day of the fiscal year, or if the grant occurs after the end of the fiscal year, the closing price on the date of grant. For the fiscal year ended October 31, 2007, options to purchase 2,000 shares of common stock were granted to each of the following directors: Mr. Ehret, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Kester and Mr. Reynolds. Mr. Fink was granted 4,000 as Chairman of the Board. All options granted had an exercise price of $7.56 per share. PROPOSAL 2: AMENDMENT OF 2000 STOCK OPTION PLAN

The Company's 2000 Stock Option Plan (the "2000 Plan") was adopted by the Board of Directors and approved by the stockholders in 2000. The purpose of the 2000 Plan is to promote the long-term success of the Company and the creation of stockholder value by (a) encouraging employees, outside directors and consultants to focus on critical long-range objectives, (b) encouraging the attraction and retention of employees, outside directors and consultants with exceptional qualifications and (c) linking employees, outside directors and consultants directly to stockholder interests through increased stock ownership. The 2000 Plan seeks to achieve this purpose by providing for awards in the form of options which may constitute incentive stock options or nonstatutory stock options.

Historically, the Company has granted options to substantially all of its employees. The Company does not believe that the shares remaining available for future grant pursuant to the 2000 Plan are sufficient to attract new employees or retain existing employees. Therefore, at the Annual Meeting, stockholders are being asked to approve an amendment to the 2000 Plan that would increase the shares reserved for issuance thereunder by 500,000 shares of Common Stock.

Pertinent features of the 2000 Plan are summarized below.

Share Reserve

The Company had initially reserved 300,000 shares of common stock for issuance under the 2000 Plan. In 2003 the Board of Directors and the stockholders approved an increase in the number of stock options by 100,000 options, 250,000 in 2006 and another 100,000 in 2007. Accordingly, as October 31, 2007, the total number of shares that had been reserved for issuance under the 2000 Plan was 750,000 shares, plus the annual automatic adjustment. Under the 2000 Plan, on January 1 of each year, the number of shares in the reserve automatically increases by 4% of the total number of shares of common stock of the Company that are outstanding at that time or by 10,000 shares, whichever is less. Accordingly, as of October 31, 2007, a total of 820,000 shares had been reserved (the initial 300,000 shares, plus 100,000 share increase approved in 2003, the 250,00 share increase approved in 2006 and the 100,000 share increase approved in 2007, and six annual 70,000 share increases since 2000). As of October 31, 2007, the Company had granted options for 809,815 shares. Therefore, as of October 31, 2007, the Company could only grant options for a total of 10,185 additional shares. Based on its normal option grant procedures, the Company estimates that it would grant options to purchase approximately 125,000 shares on October 31, 2008 to its employees. As a result of the adoption this fiscal year of SFAS 123(R), the Company is currently evaluating its prior option grant policies because of the negative effect such grants have on its financial statements. However, if the Company elects to continue to grant options in the manner it has previously done, the 10,185 shares remaining available for grant under the 2000 Plan will not be sufficient to fulfill the amount of options the Company believes it has to grant to its employees during fiscal 2008. In order to give the Company the ability to grant options this year to its employees in the normal manner, the Company has proposed to increase the number of shares that it can issue upon the exercise of options under the 2000 Plan by 500,000 shares.

Administration

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors ("Committee") administers the 2000 Plan. The Committee has the complete discretion to make all decisions relating to the interpretation and operation of the 2000 Plan. The Committee has the discretion to determine who will receive an option, what type of option it will be, how many shares will be covered by the option, what the vesting requirements will be (if any), and what the other features and conditions of each option will be. The Committee may also reprice outstanding options and modify outstanding options in other ways. The Committee has delegated to Mr. Hill, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, the ability to allocate option grants among the employees (but not the grants to executive officers or directors).

Eligibility

Employees, outside directors and independent consultants and advisors to the Company and its subsidiaries (whether now existing or subsequently established) are eligible to participate in the 2000 Plan.

Types of Award

The 2000 Plan provides incentive stock options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company and nonstatutory stock options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company.

Exercise Price, Payment and Transferability

An optionee who exercises an incentive stock option may qualify for favorable tax treatment under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Nonstatutory stock options, however, do not qualify for such favorable tax treatment. The exercise price for incentive stock options granted under the 2000 Plan may not be less than 100% of the fair market value of the common stock of the Company on the option grant date. In the case of nonstatutory options, the minimum exercise price is 85% of the fair market value of the common stock of the Company on the option grant date. Optionees may pay the exercise price by using the following methods of payment as determined by the Committee: cash; shares of common stock that the optionee already owns; a full-recourse promissory note, except that the par value of newly issued shares must be paid in cash; an immediate sale of the option shares through a broker designated by the Company; or a loan from a broker designated by the Company, secured by the option shares.

Options are generally not assignable or transferable other than by will or the laws of inheritance and, during the optionee's lifetime, the option may be exercised only by such optionee.

Vesting of Options and Termination of Service

The options will vest at the time or times determined by the Committee. Options generally expire 10 years after they are granted, except that they generally expire earlier if the optionee's service terminates earlier. Upon the optionee's cessation of employment or service, the optionee will have a limited period of time in which to exercise his or her outstanding options for any shares in which the optionee is vested at that time. However, at any time while the options remain outstanding, the Committee will generally have discretion to extend the period following the optionee's cessation of employment or service during which his or her outstanding options may be exercised. The Committee will also have discretion to accelerate the exercisability or vesting of those options in whole or in part at any time.

Change in Control

If a change in control of the Company occurs, an option under the 2000 Plan may become fully vested and exercisable as determined by the Committee. A change in control includes: (i) a merger of the Company after which the Company's stockholders own 50% or less of the surviving corporation (or its parent company); (ii) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets; (iii) a change in the composition of the Board that results in the replacement of more than one-half of the Company's incumbent directors over a 24-month period; or (iv) an acquisition of 20% or more of the Company's outstanding stock by any person or group, other than a person related to the Company (such as a holding company owned by the Company's stockholders).

Amendments

The Board may amend or terminate the 2000 Plan at any time. If the Board amends the 2000 Plan, it does not need to ask for stockholder approval of the amendment unless required. Stockholder approval of any amendment of the 2000 Plan may be required to be obtained if the Board determines it is otherwise required by the Internal Revenue Code or any rules promulgated thereunder (in order to allow for incentive stock options to be granted under the 2000 Plan), by the quotation or listing requirements of The Nasdaq Stock Market or any principal securities exchange or market on which shares of Common Stock are then traded (in order to maintain the listing of the shares thereon) or any other applicable law.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

Options granted under the 2000 Plan may be either incentive stock options that satisfy the requirements of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code or non-statutory options that are not intended to meet such requirements. The Federal income tax treatment for the two types of options differs as follows:

Incentive Options No taxable income is recognized by the optionee at the time of the option grant, and no taxable income is generally recognized at the time the option is exercised. The optionee will, however, recognize taxable income in the year in which the purchased shares are sold or otherwise made the subject of a taxable disposition. For Federal income tax purposes, dispositions are divided into two categories: qualifying dispositions and disqualifying dispositions. A qualifying disposition occurs if the sale or other disposition is made after the optionee has held the shares for more than two (2) years after the option grant date and more than one (1) year after the exercise date. If either of these two holding periods is not satisfied, then a disqualifying disposition will result.

Upon a qualifying disposition, the optionee will recognize long-term capital gain in an amount equal to the excess of (i) the amount realized upon the sale or other disposition of the purchased shares over (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares. If there is a disqualifying disposition of the shares, then the excess of (i) the fair market value of those shares on the exercise date over (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares will be taxable as ordinary income to the optionee. Any additional gain or loss recognized upon the disposition will be recognized as a capital gain or loss by the optionee.

Non-Statutory Options No taxable income is recognized by an optionee upon the grant of a non-statutory option. The optionee will in general recognize ordinary income, in the year in which the option is exercised, equal to the excess of the fair market value of the purchased shares on the exercise date over the exercise price paid for the shares, and the optionee will be required to satisfy the tax withholding requirements applicable to such income.

The Company will be entitled to an income tax deduction equal to the amount of ordinary income recognized by the optionee with respect to the exercised non-statutory option. The deduction will in general be allowed for the taxable year of the Company in which such ordinary income is recognized by the optionee.

Internal Revenue Code Section 409A Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code imposes restrictions on nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements that do not meet specified criteria as set forth in the statute and guidance promulgated thereunder (which may include option grants at below fair market value). If any of the arrangements provided under the 2000 Plan fail to meet the criteria specified in Section 409A, or if the 2000 Plan is not operated by the Company in accordance with such criteria, then a participant will recognize ordinary income equal to the value of the awards when such awards are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture even though the participant has not received the award in cash or stock. Additionally, the participant will be liable for a 20% tax on such amounts in addition to income taxes otherwise due on such amounts.
